DEADLINE EXTENSION

Public Service Announcement contest

For 1708 Gallery InLight

Entries now due by 5pm Friday, September 4th.

The Challenge: Create a 20 second film or video art piece inspired by light to be tagged with a 10 second end-card of event information and aired regionally as a public service announcement for the 2nd annual InLight Richmond, an outdoor light-inspired contemporary art exhibition and celebration.

To Enter: Go to <http://www.1708gallery.org/inlight/artists.php> or call 1708 Gallery at 804.643.1708. Submissions can either be in a DVD or emailed Quicktime format.

Reward: $250 cash prize for winner.

InLight Richmond 2009 will take place on September 25, 2009 (a few art installation will be on view for longer). Downtown Richmond between East Grace and East Broad Streets and 5th to 8th Streets will be transformed by art installations presented in various public spaces. InLight Richmond 2009 is made possible by Altria Group, Venture Richmond, Dominion Resources, MeadWestvaco, NBC 12, Richmond Times Dispatch, First Market Bank and Plaza Artist Materials.

1708 Gallery is committed to presenting contemporary art that questions, challenges and redefines the established aesthetic boundaries. One of the oldest artist-run non-profit arts organizations in the country, 1708 Gallery offers the public an opportunity to investigate and discover the most recent and innovative developments in contemporary art
