Cindy Neuschwander & Bryce Barrows Scholarship Winners

Richmond, VA - Each spring 1708 Gallery recognizes graduating high school students who are promising visual artists through the Cindy Neuschwander Scholarship, which honors the memory, generosity of spirit, and artistic talents of Cindy Neuschwander, an artist and longtime 1708 supporter. Nominated by their teachers and reviewed by a professional panel, the recognized students are talented, passionate, dedicated, and show a willingness to explore art in meaningful ways.

Additionally this spring, 1708 Gallery has the privilege of offering a special second scholarship given to graduating high school seniors who are pursuing studies in the performing arts. The Bryce Barrows Scholarship honors the memory of Bryce Barrows, an artist, performer, and graduate of Appomattox Regional Governor's School, and the stepson of Cindy Neuschwander.
